Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 16° (Is 62:1-5 | 1 Cor 12:4-11 | Jn 2:1-11)

This week we are at a wedding in Cana where Jesus reveals Divine power by transforming water into wine. The Bible begins with one wedding, that of Adam and Eve in the garden (Gn 2:23-24), and ends with another, the marriage supper of the Lamb (Rv 19:9, 21:9, 22:17). At Cana, Jesus also blesses human marriage, perhaps at that moment instituting the Sacrament of Matrimony. Throughout the Bible, marriage is the symbol of the Covenant relationship between God and His chosen people. God is the faithful Bridegroom and humanity is His beloved bride. Let us pray for God's daily miracles in our families.

We see this theme beautifully presented in today's first reading, where Isaiah uses the metaphor of spousal love to describe God's love for Israel. God's fidelity to his people is compared to a husband's fidelity to his wife. Isaiah predicts God's salvation of Jerusalem after the return of the Babylonian exiles and visualizes it as a wedding between God and Jerusalem. Jesus' provision of abundant wine for the wedding feast in Cana signifies that the day foreseen by Isaiah has arrived. Anticipating the joy of this wedding, the Psalmist urges us in the Responsorial Psalm (Ps 96), "Sing to the Lord a new song." In today's second reading, St. Paul reminds us that the new wine that Jesus pours out for us is the gift of the Holy Spirit, given to His Bride. In today's Gospel, John describes the first of the seven "signs" by which Jesus showed forth His Divinity. When the wine "ran short," Jesus' Mother told Jesus about it. At first Jesus seemed to refuse to do anything about it. But later he told the servants to fill six large stone jars with water and take some of the miraculous water-made-wine to the headwaiter. When they did so, the headwaiter expressed his surprise that such a great wine had been reserved for late use.

Life messages: 1) Let us, "invite Jesus and Mary to remain with us in our homes" when we feel shortages in our family lives. The spouses need Jesus and Mary when their dreams are gone, mutual love seems dried up, the relationship becomes boring, and raising the children becomes a burden draining all their energy. The awareness of the presence of Jesus and Mary in the family will encourage parents to create an atmosphere of prayer, Bible-reading, mutual love, and respect, with a spirit of forgiveness and sacrificial service at home. This change will refresh and renovate family life, removing its boredom.

2) Let us follow Mary's instruction, "Do whatever He tells you." This is the only recorded command given by Mary in the New Testament, and it is a prerequisite for miracles in our families. The Bible tells us how to do the will of God and effect salvific changes in our daily lives. 3) Just as Jesus filled the empty water jars with wine, let us fill the empty hearts around us with love. By the miracle of Cana, Jesus challenges us also to enrich the empty lives of those around us with the new wine of love, mercy, concern, and care. 4) Let us learn to appreciate the miracles of God's providence in our lives. God, often as an uninvited guest in our families, works daily miracles in our lives by protecting us from physical and moral dangers, providing for our needs, inspiring us, and strengthening us with His Holy Spirit. Let us also appreciate, where God transforms our offering of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus.

REFLEXION

How do I manifest (show forth, "epiphany") the unity which GOD wants to have with the Beloved People of GOD? What gifts (charismata) has GOD given me to edify the community of believers? How have I used those gifts for the building up (edifying of) the community?

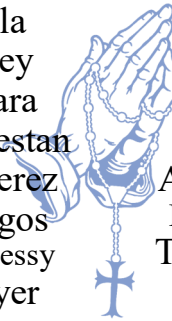

Feast of The Presentation of The Lord Jesus

On Wednesday, February 2nd, we celebrate the feast of the PRESENTATION OF THE INFANT JESUS, who is the Light, the truth and the way. On this day the Infant Jesus and the candles that you bring will be blessed as they are the symbol of the Light of Christ, taking this candle home is a sign that Christ is with you every day of his life. The Feast will be celebrated on this day at 8:30am in English and 7:00pm in Spanish in the Church.

FOOD PANTRY

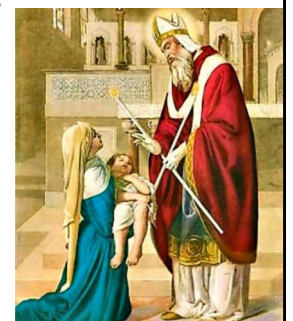

Next distribution Friday January 28, 2022 from 9:00AM to 10:00AM.

Be respectful to follow social distancing guidelines. If in urgent need of food, please call the rectory for information.

On Thursday, February 3rd, We celebrate the feast of Saint Blaise, who was bishop of Sebaste in Armenia in the fourth century. Before being martyred, he is said to have healed a boy who was choking.

Since the eighth century, Saint Blaise has been venerated as the patron of those who suffer from diseases of the throat. We pray in a special way that day for protection from afflictions of the throat and from other illnesses. The blessing of Saint Blaise is a sign of our faith in God's protection and love for us and for the sick. There will be a Bilingual Mass at 8:30am in the Church.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

It was several years ago now, but the scene is still vivid in my mind. My son stood confidently in front of the altar as the music rose in a crescendo and his bride stepped into sight. The love and joy he felt trickled down his cheek as she walked down the aisle. He broke into a smile as she joined him, and proudly took her hand to promise to become one with her forever. Isaiah writes: “As a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.” Isaiah was talking about the nation of Israel, but God loves and rejoices in each of his children and wants us to know the joy of being loved by him. He generously shares his gifts with us, “different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit,” St. Paul explains to the Corinthians. All spiritual gifts come from God, and all are important and necessary: “To each individual, the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” God’s gifts are distributed uniquely to each person to use in our own unique way to “announce his salvation, day after day,” and invite others to discover the joy of his great love.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

You are a masterpiece! This message was conveyed at the camp our diocese held each year to help teens recognize that they are God’s beloved sons and daughters, called and gifted by the Holy Spirit to be missionary disciples. Discerning what our gifts are and how to use them can be challenging. The Gospel about the wedding at Cana offers an interesting guide. Mary tells the waiters, “Do whatever he tells you.” By reserving time for listening and not speaking during prayer, we can hear what Jesus is “telling” us. Jesus then says to the waiters, “Fill the jars with water.” We can “fill our jars” with the knowledge of how to live as disciples by reflecting on Scripture. Finally, Jesus tells the waiters, “Draw some out.” We can “draw” on his love for strength and courage when we need it, but more importantly, we are called to “draw some out” to share with others. In sharing the “good wine,” the Good News of Jesus Christ, others will begin to believe in him, too.

PRAYER As the new year gets under way, devote time to discerning the unique spiritual gifts, or charisms, you have been given. Make time for silent prayer and reflecting on Scripture each day.

Mary asks Jesus for a Miracle

In today's Gospel we hear the story of Jesus' first miracle. Wine was an important part of a wedding, and Our Lady felt bad for the people when they ran out.

When Mary hinted to Jesus to do something, Jesus said that the time wasn't ready yet. But do you know what? He did what His mother wanted anyway! He told the servants to fill six big jars with water, and when they did it turned into wine! And not just ordinary wine, but the very best.

We can learn from this story that we should listen to our parents. Jesus is God and even He obeys His mother!

Here's another thing: if you need Jesus to help you with anything, pray to His Blessed Mother to ask Him for it. You know He will listen to His Mother!

(1 COR 12:4)

Fue hace ya varios años, pero la escena sigue viva en mi mente. Mi hijo se paró con confianza frente al altar mientras la música se elevaba en un crescendo y su novia apareció a la vista. El amor y la alegría que sentía corrían por su mejilla mientras ella caminaba por el pasillo. Él proyectó una sonrisa cuando ella se unió a él y orgullosamente le tomó la mano para prometerle que sería uno con ella para siempre. Isaías escribe: “Como el gozo del novio en su novia, así se gozará vuestro Dios en vosotros”. Isaías estaba hablando de la nación de Israel, pero Dios ama y se regocija en cada uno de sus hijos y quiere que conozcamos el gozo de ser amados por él. Él comparte generosamente sus dones con nosotros, “diferentes tipos de dones espirituales pero el mismo Espíritu”, explica San Pablo a los Corintios. Todos los dones espirituales vienen de Dios, y todos son importantes y necesarios: “A cada individuo, la manifestación del Espíritu le es dada para algún beneficio”. Los dones de Dios se distribuyen de manera única a cada persona para que los usemos de manera única para “anunciar su salvación, día tras día”, e invitar a otros a descubrir la alegría de su gran amor.

ANDAEVANGELIZA*ORANDO, INVITANDO, TESTIFICANDO, ACOMPAÑANDO

¡Eres una obra maestra! Este mensaje fue transmitido en el campamento que nuestra diócesis realiza cada año para ayudar a los adolescentes a reconocer que son hijos e hijas amados de Dios, llamados y dotados por el Espíritu Santo para ser discípulos misioneros. Discernir cuáles son nuestros dones y cómo usarlos puede ser un desafío. El Evangelio de las bodas de Caná ofrece una interesante guía. Mary les dice a los meseros: “Hagan lo que él les diga”. Al reservar tiempo para escuchar y no hablar durante la oración, podemos escuchar lo que Jesús nos está “diciendo”. Entonces Jesús les dice a los camareros: “Llenen las tinajas con agua”. Podemos “llenar nuestras tinajas” con el conocimiento de cómo vivir como discípulos al reflexionar sobre las Escrituras. Finalmente, Jesús les dice a los meseros: “Saquen un poco”. Podemos “sacar” de su amor la fuerza y el coraje cuando lo necesitamos, pero lo que es más importante, estamos llamados a “sacar algo” para compartir con los demás. Al compartir el “buen vino”, las Buenas Nuevas de Jesucristo, otros también comenzarán a creer en él.

ORA

A medida que comienza el nuevo año, dedique tiempo a discernir los dones espirituales únicos, o carismas, que se le han otorgado. Tómese un tiempo para la oración en silencio y la reflexión sobre las Escrituras todos los días.

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

16º de Enero (Is 62:1-5 | 1 Cor 12:4-11 | Jn 2:1-11)

Esta semana estamos en una boda en Caná donde Jesús revela el poder Divino al transformar el agua en vino. La Biblia comienza con una boda, la de Adán y Eva en el jardín (Gn 2, 23-24), y termina con otra, la cena de las bodas del Cordero (Ap 19, 9, 21, 9, 22, 17). En Caná, Jesús también bendice el matrimonio humano, quizás en ese momento instituyendo el Sacramento del Matrimonio. A lo largo de la Biblia, el matrimonio es el símbolo de la relación de pacto entre Dios y su pueblo elegido. Dios es el Esposo fiel y la humanidad es Su novia amada. Oremos por los milagros diarios de Dios en nuestras familias.

Vemos este tema hermosamente presentado en la primera lectura de hoy, donde Isaías usa la metáfora del amor conyugal para describir el amor de Dios por Israel. La fidelidad de Dios a su pueblo se compara con la fidelidad de un esposo a su esposa. Isaías predice la salvación de Dios de Jerusalén después del regreso de los exiliados babilónicos y la visualiza como una boda entre Dios y Jerusalén. La provisión de vino abundante por parte de Jesús para las bodas de Caná significa que ha llegado el día previsto por Isaías. Anticipando la alegría de estas bodas, el salmista nos exhorta en el Salmo responsorial (Sal 96) "Cantad al Señor un cántico nuevo". En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo nos recuerda que el vino nuevo que Jesús derrama por nosotros es el don del Espíritu Santo, dado a Su Esposa. En el Evangelio de hoy, Juan describe la primera de las siete "señales" por las que Jesús mostró su divinidad. Cuando el vino "se acabó", la Madre de Jesús se lo contó a Jesús. Al principio, Jesús parecía negarse a hacer algo al respecto. Pero más tarde les dijo a los sirvientes que llenaran seis grandes tinajas de piedra con agua y llevaran un poco del milagroso vino hecho con agua al maestresala. Cuando lo hicieron, el maître expresó su sorpresa de que tan buen vino se hubiera reservado para uso tardío.

Mensajes de vida: 1) "Invitemos a Jesús y María a permanecer con nosotros en nuestros hogares" cuando sintamos carencias en nuestra vida familiar. Los esposos necesitan a Jesús y María cuando sus sueños se han ido, el amor mutuo parece seco, la relación se vuelve aburrida y criar a los hijos se convierte en una carga que agota todas sus energías. La conciencia de la presencia de Jesús y María en la familia animará a los padres a crear un ambiente de oración, lectura de la Biblia, amor mutuo y respeto, con espíritu de perdón y servicio sacrificial en el hogar. Este cambio refrescará y renovará la vida familiar, eliminando su aburrimiento.

2) Sigamos la instrucción de María: "Haced lo que Él os diga". Este es el único mandato registrado dado por María en el Nuevo Testamento, y es un requisito previo para los milagros en nuestras familias. La Biblia nos dice cómo hacer la voluntad de Dios y efectuar cambios salvíficos en nuestra vida diaria. 3) Así como Jesús llenó las tinajas de agua vacías con vino, llenemos de amor los corazones vacíos que nos rodean. Por el milagro de Caná, Jesús nos desafía también a enriquecer las vidas vacías de quienes nos rodean con el vino nuevo del amor, la misericordia, la solicitud y el cuidado. 4) Aprendamos a apreciar los milagros de la providencia de Dios en nuestra vida. Dios, a menudo como un huésped no invitado en nuestras familias, obra milagros diariamente en nuestras vidas protegiéndonos de los peligros físicos y morales, proveyendo para nuestras necesidades, inspirándonos y fortaleciéndonos con Su Espíritu Santo. Apreciemos también, donde Dios transforma nuestra ofrenda de pan y vino en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús.

PARA LA REFLEXION

¿Cómo manifiesto (muestro, "epifanía") la unidad que DIOS quiere tener con el Amado Pueblo de DIOS? ¿Qué dones (charismata) me ha dado DIOS para edificar la comunidad de creyentes? ¿Cómo he usado esos dones para la edificación de la comunidad?

3 de Febrero, Celebramos la fiesta de San Blas, fue obispo de Sebaste, Armenia, conocido por su don de curación milagrosa al salvar la vida de un niño que se estaba atragantándose con una espina de pescado. Él ha sido venerado como patrón de los que sufren de enfermedades de la garganta. Oramos de una manera especial en ese día para la protección de nuestras aflicciones de la garganta y otras enfermedades. La bendición de San Blas es un signo de nuestra fe en Dios por su protección y amor por nosotros y por los enfermos. Debido a la necesidad de precaución para evitar contactos innecesarios, este año la Bendición será sobre toda la congregación al mismo tiempo.

Se celebrará Misa Bilingüe a las 8:30AM en la Iglesia.
