Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 6° (Is 6:1-2a,3-8 | 1 Cor 15:1-11 | Lk 5:1-11)

Today's Scripture readings challenge us to discern God's call to each one of us to become His disciple with a mission. We are asked to recognize God's holy presence and acknowledge our unworthiness, due to our sinfulness, to become humble instruments in His hands, as the prophet Isaiah did in the first reading, as St. Paul did in the second reading, and as St. Peter did in today's Gospel. Today's readings also teach us that God has His own criteria for selecting people to be His disciples, ministers and prophets. Presenting the special calls, or vocations, of Isaiah, Paul, and Peter as life-changing events, the readings challenge us to examine our own personal change of life and commitment to our discipleship.

Isaiah, in the first reading, and Peter, in today's Gospel, express their unworthiness to be in the presence of God's great holiness, and Peter and Isaiah both immediately receive reassurance and their Divine calls. Today's second reading describes the call of another great apostle, Paul, who judges himself to be unworthy of the name or the call, as he was a former persecutor of the Christians and as he was last apostle selected by the Risen Lord. Today's Responsorial Psalm (Ps 138) offers a prayer of gratitude for just such a calling. For, it was by giving these three men a strong conviction of their unworthiness and of their need for total dependence on His grace that God prepared them for their missions. It was the miraculous catch of fish at Jesus' command, described in today's Gospel, which enabled Peter to find God in Jesus and prompted him to surrender his life fully to Jesus' service as a full-time disciple. The Second Vatican Council teaches that we are all called to Christ's ministry by virtue of our Baptism into Jesus Christ.

Life Messages: 1) We need to pray that our encounters with the holiness of God may lead us to recognize our sinfulness and accept His call. God, who calls us and commissions us for His service, wants us to realize His presence everywhere and in everyone, to repent of our sins, and to remain in readiness to speak and act for Him in our life circumstances, as He shall direct us through His grace and His Holy Spirit.

2) We need to teach and practice expressions of reverence for the Lord. We need to express our reverence for God through appropriate bodily gestures. For example, when we come into Church, we need to show reverence for Jesus' presence in the Tabernacle by making a deep bow or by genuflecting and blessing ourselves with sign of the cross. Then we need to honor Him by listening to the word of God and by actively participating in the liturgy's prayers and singing. This same sense of reverence can be expressed by keeping the Bible, God's living word to us, in a prominent place in our homes and by kissing it each time we read from it. True reverence for God naturally leads us to reverent, respectful love of our neighbors, as God dwells in them.

3) We need to remember that each of us has a unique mission in the Church. This is why God has a different call for each of us. Each of us is unique, so each of us has a mission which no one else can fulfill. Let us accomplish this mission as parents, priests, religious, and lay persons by radiating the love, mercy, and forgiveness of Jesus and by participating in the various ministries of our parish.

REFLEXION

How have I experienced the holiness of GOD? What feelings did I have when I experienced GOD's holiness? How has the awesomeness of GOD challenged me to be apostolic, traditional, and evangelistic? To whom might I be called to proclaim the GOoD News today? this week? And how will I share the awesomeness of GOD with them?

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

We put off all kinds of things for all kinds of reasons. I'll take that trip with my family once my schedule clears up. Someday I'll read that book collecting dust on my shelf. I'll volunteer at church once I get my own act together. Today's readings remind us that God will take us as we are: We need only say "yes." In each of the readings, the protagonists – Isaiah, Paul, and Peter – initially resist God's call, fearing their sinfulness disqualifies them. We may feel that way, too. However, in each case, God forgives their sins and gives them the grace to say, like Isaiah, "Here I am. Send me!" Their assent can be a challenge to those of us who hold back from becoming more involved in our parish or sharing our faith with others, fearing we aren't good enough or aren't an expert in theology. Jesus reminds us that it is ultimately not about us, but him. We don't have to be perfect, just willing to push past our fears and trust him to make disciples of us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today's readings, we hear descriptions of Isaiah's lips touched by a burning ember, Paul being transformed from persecutor to preacher, and the fishermen dropping their nets to follow Jesus. In each case, that turning point led to a life of witness. We may not have such a dramatic story to share, but most of us can look back and see turning points: That influential teacher, the aunt who saw the best in us, a priest, sister, or retreat leader who spoke to our hearts. Today's readings can encourage us to be that person for others – the one who shows them the love of Christ and what a difference it can make. Buoyed by God's grace, we can share the Good News with others and accompany one another as we seek to follow Jesus in our day-to-day lives.

ACT Carve out time to do something spiritual you've been putting off – whether it's a retreat, morning prayer, or perhaps volunteering in a parish ministry or other organization.

"COME AFTER ME AND I WILL MAKE YOU
fishers of men."

Fishers of Men

In today's gospel reading Peter had been out fishing all night and hadn't been able to catch any fish. When Jesus told him to let down the nets again he did it anyway. He was very surprised when the nets filled up with fish right away. And there were so many that the boat started to sink!

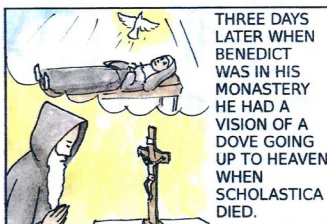

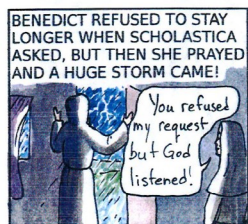

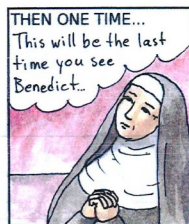

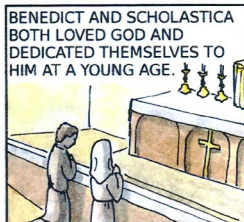

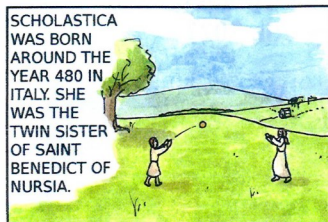

Jesus told Peter and his friends James and John that he was going to make them "fishers of men." But He didn't mean that they would catch people in nets! He was showing them that they had to bring people into the Church.

Who are the "fishers of men" today? Priests! They help people to come to the Faith by giving them the sacraments and teaching them the truth about God.

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

6° de Febrero (Is 6:1-2a,3-8 | 1 Cor 15:1-11 | Lk 5:1-11)

Las lecturas bíblicas de hoy nos desafían a discernir el llamado de Dios a cada uno de nosotros para convertirnos en sus discípulos con una misión. Se nos pide que reconozcamos la santa presencia de Dios y reconozcamos nuestra indignidad, por nuestra pecaminosidad, para convertirnos en humildes instrumentos en sus manos, como lo hizo el profeta Isaías en la primera lectura, como lo hizo San Pablo en la segunda lectura, y como lo hizo San Pablo en la segunda lectura. Pedro lo hizo en el Evangelio de hoy. Las lecturas de hoy también nos enseñan que Dios tiene Su propio criterio para seleccionar a las personas para que sean Sus discípulos, ministros y profetas. Al presentar los llamados especiales, o vocaciones, de Isaías, Pablo y Pedro como eventos que cambian la vida, las lecturas nos desafían a examinar nuestro propio cambio personal de vida y compromiso con nuestro discipulado.

Isaías, en la primera lectura, y Pedro, en el Evangelio de hoy, expresan su indignidad para estar en la presencia de la gran santidad de Dios, y Pedro e Isaías reciben inmediatamente el consuelo y las llamadas divinas. La segunda lectura de hoy describe la llamada de otro gran apóstol, Pablo, que se juzga indigno del nombre o de la llamada, ya que fue un antiguo perseguidor de los cristianos y el último apóstol elegido por el Señor Resucitado. El Salmo Responsorial de hoy (Sal 138) ofrece una oración de agradecimiento por tal llamado. Porque fue dándoles a estos tres hombres una fuerte convicción de su indignidad y de su necesidad de depender totalmente de Su gracia que Dios los preparó para sus misiones. Fue la pesca milagrosa por orden de Jesús, descrita en el Evangelio de hoy, lo que permitió a Pedro encontrar a Dios en Jesús y lo impulsó a entregar su vida por completo al servicio de Jesús como discípulo de tiempo completo. El Concilio Vaticano II enseña que todos estamos llamados al ministerio de Cristo en virtud de nuestro bautismo en Jesucristo.

Mensajes de vida: 1) Necesitamos orar para que nuestros encuentros con la santidad de Dios nos lleven a reconocer nuestra pecaminosidad y aceptar su llamado. Dios, que nos llama y nos comisiona para su servicio, quiere que nos demos cuenta de su presencia en todas partes y en todos, que nos arrepintamos de nuestros pecados y permanezcamos dispuestos a hablar y actuar por Él en las circunstancias de nuestra vida, como Él nos indique. por su gracia y su Espíritu Santo. 2) Necesitamos enseñar y practicar expresiones de reverencia por el Señor. Necesitamos expresar nuestra reverencia por Dios a través de gestos corporales apropiados. Por ejemplo, cuando venimos a la Iglesia, debemos mostrar reverencia por la presencia de Jesús en el Tabernáculo haciendo una profunda reverencia o haciendo una genuflexión y bendiciéndonos con la señal de la cruz. Luego, debemos honrarlo escuchando la palabra de Dios y participando activamente en las oraciones y los cantos de la liturgia. Este mismo sentido de reverencia se puede expresar manteniendo la Biblia, la palabra viva de Dios para nosotros, en un lugar destacado de nuestro hogar y besándola cada vez que la leemos. La verdadera reverencia por Dios naturalmente nos lleva al amor reverente y respetuoso de nuestro prójimo, ya que Dios mora en ellos. 3) Debemos recordar que cada uno de nosotros tiene una misión única en la Iglesia. Por eso Dios tiene un llamado diferente para cada uno de nosotros. Cada uno de nosotros es único, por lo que cada uno de nosotros tiene una misión que nadie más puede cumplir. Cumplamos esta misión como padres, sacerdotes, religiosos y laicos irradiando el amor, la misericordia y el perdón de Jesús y participando en los diversos ministerios de nuestra parroquia.

PARA LA REFLEXION

¿Cómo he experimentado la santidad de DIOS? ¿Qué sentimientos tuve cuando experimenté la santidad de DIOS? ¿Cómo me ha desafiado la maravilla de DIOS a ser apostólica, tradicional y evangelizadora? ¿A quién podría ser llamado hoy para proclamar las BUENAS Nuevas? ¿esta semana? ¿Y cómo compartiré la maravilla de DIOS con ellos?

Gracias A los que se han comprometido y han cumplido con su compromiso. Y me complace informarles que pudimos alcanzar con nuestra meta ($21,906). Se hizo un compromiso de $37,665 y se cumplió con $31,752, trabajo bien hecho, felicidades. Su amabilidad y generosidad es muy apreciada.
