Easter Sunday

April 24^o (Acts 5:12-16 | Rev 1:9-11a,12-13,17-19| Jn 20:19-31)

The readings for this Sunday are about God's mercy, the necessity for trusting Faith, and our need for the forgiveness of our sins. The opening prayer addresses the Father as "God of everlasting Mercy." In the Responsorial Psalm (Ps 118), we repeat several times, "His mercy endures forever!" God revealed His mercy, first and foremost, in sending His only begotten Son to become our Savior and Lord through His suffering, death, and Resurrection. Divine Mercy is given to us also in each celebration of the Sacraments (all instituted to sanctify us), especially that of Reconciliation.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, explains how the Risen Lord continued to show His Divine Mercy to the sick through the healing and preaching ministry of the apostles in the early Church. The Faith of the apostles enabled them to minister to the people, giving them the Lord's healing love in "signs and wonders." The second reading, taken from the Book of Revelation (given by Jesus to the Apostle John in exile on Patmos), was intended to comfort and bolster the Faith of persecuted Christians for all time. Today's selection assures us of the presence of the merciful Lord in our lives and encourages all of us to fight fear with Faith, and trepidation about the future with trust and Hope. Today's Gospel recalls Jesus' institution of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a Sacrament of Divine Mercy. The Risen Lord gave his apostles and their successors the power to forgive sins with the words, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (Jn 20:19-23). Presenting the doubting Thomas' famous profession of Faith, "My Lord and my God," the Gospel illustrates how Jesus showed his mercy to the doubting apostle and emphasizes the importance of Faith.

Life messages: 1) We need to accept God's invitation to celebrate and practice mercy in our Christian lives: One way the Church celebrates God's mercy throughout the year is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Finding time for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is another good way to receive and give thanks for Divine Mercy. But it is mainly through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy that we practice mercy in our daily lives and become eligible for God's merciful judgment.

2) Let us ask God for the Faith that culminates in self-surrender to God and that leads us to serve those we encounter with love. Living Faith enables us to see the risen Lord in everyone and gives us the willingness to render to each our loving service. The Fathers of the Church prescribe the following traditional means to grow in the living and dynamic faith of St. Thomas the Apostle: a) First, we must come to know Jesus personally and intimately by our daily and meditative reading of the Bible. b) Next, we must strengthen our Faith through our personal and community prayer. c) Third, we must share in the Divine Life of Jesus by frequenting the Sacraments of Reconciliation and receiving the Holy Eucharist. St. Teresa of Calcutta (Mother Teresa) presents it this way: "If we pray, we will believe; if we believe, we will love; if we love, we will serve. Only then we put our love of God into action."

REFLEXION

How is my life a proclamation that Jesus is risen and has shared with us the gift of (Shalom) Peace? Do I constantly need some sort of "proof" of the Risen Lord or can I believe without "seeing"? Who might benefit from my sharing the gift of Easter (Shalom)-peace and reconciliation?

The formation of the People of God and the Extraordinary ministers must therefore be different from any other educational endeavor. Liturgical formation "must be above all spiritual", without forgetting that it is also essential to have a knowledge of the rites and the different forms of prayer at Mass. Good liturgy is the product not so much of a good knowledge of the rubric but of a well-trained heart.

Saturday May 14, 2022 at St. Edmund's Prep High School located at 2474 Ocean Avenue Brooklyn NY 11229 from 9AM-3:30PM. All those wishing to serve can register in the rectory by May 2. Any information call the rectory during morning office hours.

Divine Mercy

In today's Gospel we hear about the first time that Jesus came to the Apostles after He rose from the dead. He breathed on them and told them that they had the power to forgive sins. Jesus had just given us the Sacrament of Confession- now a priest could take God's place to hear our sins and tell us that we are forgiven.

Today, the second Sunday of Easter, is also the feast of Divine Mercy. Mercy means being treated well even though we don't deserve it. God is so merciful that He wants to forgive ALL our sins, no matter how bad. All we have to do is be sorry and go to Confession.

God's Divine Mercy is so great that even the worst sinner in the world can be saved from Hell if he asks for it. But even our little sins hurt Jesus, so we need to ask God for mercy too. Don't ever imagine that God can't forgive you when you are sorry- remember, Jesus died on the cross so that you would be able to go to Heaven!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's Gospel, Thomas gets singled out as the one who doubts that Jesus had risen from the dead. But the other Gospels reveal that the other disciples doubted too. I understand why they had trouble believing that Jesus was alive. To think that God loves us enough that he chose to become human to die for our sins is incomprehensible. To accept that he loves us this deeply is almost unbearable. It seems doubtful anyone can love us that much. It seems doubtful that we deserve to be loved that much. It is much easier to doubt than to believe. But Thomas was the first to publicly proclaim the man Jesus as also God: My Lord and my God! he says. The risen Jesus had come into the room, although the doors were locked, and called them back into belief. Through Christ, God shows the disciples – and us – the extent of his love and mercy. We are worth it, even when we doubt, even when we fail. His death and resurrection are testament to that. He will walk through whatever walls exist to tell us. No doubt about it.

GO EVANGELIZE

PARYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The reading from the Acts of the Apostles today describes the reaction to the apostles' joyful and confident proclamation that Jesus was Lord and God after receiving the Holy Spirit. The crowds drew near just to have Peter's shadow fall upon those who were sick. God's mercy has no bounds. How can we be like the first disciples? In what ways do our lives reflect God's mercy on us? Where can our own "shadows fall" so that God's goodness and grace can bring healing and comfort to others? Let us begin our days by giving "thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting," and trust that the Holy Spirit will both remind us of our blessings and continued need for mercy, and guide us to encounters with others who need the same.

PRAY

During this Easter season, read a passage from the Acts of the Apostles each day and immerse yourself in the history of the early Church. End your time of reflection by praying the Apostles' Creed, the statement of beliefs of Christians in the first centuries after Jesus' death and resurrection.

EL FIEL
DISCÍPULO

CRECE COMO DISCÍPULO | ORAR, ESTUDIAR, ENVOLVERSE, SERVIR

En el Evangelio de hoy, Tomás es señalado como el que duda de que Jesús haya resucitado de entre los muertos. Pero los otros evangelios revelan que los otros discípulos también dudaron. Entiendo por qué tenían problemas para creer que Jesús estaba vivo. Pensar que Dios nos ama lo suficiente como para elegir hacerse humano para morir por nuestros pecados es incomprensible. Aceptar que nos ama tan profundamente es casi insoportable. Parece dudoso que alguien pueda amarnos tanto. Parece dudoso que merezcamos ser amados tanto. Es mucho más fácil dudar que creer. Pero Tomás fue el primero en proclamar públicamente al hombre Jesús como también Dios: ¡Señor mío y Dios mío! él dice. Jesús resucitado había entrado en la habitación, aunque las puertas estaban cerradas, y los llamó a creer. A través de Cristo, Dios muestra a los discípulos – ya nosotros – la medida de su amor y misericordia. Valemos la pena, incluso cuando dudamos, incluso cuando fallamos. Su muerte y resurrección son testimonio de ello. Él atravesará cualquier muro que exista para decírnoslo. No hay duda de eso.

ANDA EVANGELIZA

ORANDO, INVITANDO, TESTIFICANDO, ACOMPAÑANDO

La lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles de hoy describe la reacción a la proclamación gozosa y confiada de los apóstoles de que Jesús era Señor y Dios después de recibir el Espíritu Santo. La multitud se acercó para que la sombra de Pedro cayera sobre los enfermos. La misericordia de Dios no tiene límites. ¿Cómo podemos ser como los primeros discípulos? ¿De qué manera nuestra vida refleja la misericordia de Dios para con nosotros? ¿Dónde pueden caer nuestras propias "sombras" para que la bondad y la gracia de Dios puedan traer sanidad y consuelo a otros? Comencemos nuestros días dando "gracias al Señor porque es bueno, su amor es eterno", y confiemos en que el Espíritu Santo nos recordará nuestras bendiciones y nuestra continua necesidad de misericordia, y nos guiará a encontrarnos con otros que necesita lo mismo.

REZA

Durante este tiempo de Pascua, lee un pasaje de los Hechos de los Apóstoles cada día y sumérgete en la historia de la Iglesia primitiva. Termina tu tiempo de reflexión rezando el Credo de los Apóstoles, la declaración de creencias de los cristianos en los primeros siglos después de la muerte y resurrección de Jesús.

Domingo de Pascua

24° de Abril (Acts 5:12-16 | Apoc 1:9-11a,12-13,17-19 | Jn 20:19-31)

Las lecturas de este domingo son sobre la misericordia de Dios, la necesidad de confiar en la fe y nuestra necesidad del perdón de nuestros pecados. La oración de apertura se dirige al Padre como "Dios de eterna misericordia". En el Salmo Responsorial (Sal 118), repetimos varias veces: "¡Para siempre es su misericordia!" Dios reveló Su misericordia, ante todo, al enviar a Su Hijo unigénito para convertirse en nuestro Salvador y Señor a través de Su sufrimiento, muerte y Resurrección. La Divina Misericordia nos es dada también en cada celebración de los Sacramentos (todos instituidos para santificarnos), especialmente el de la Reconciliación.

La primera lectura, tomada de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, explica cómo el Señor Resucitado continuó mostrando Su Divina Misericordia a los enfermos a través del ministerio de sanación y predicación de los apóstoles en la Iglesia primitiva. La fe de los apóstoles los capacitó para ministrar a la gente, dándoles el amor sanador del Señor en "señales y prodigios". La segunda lectura, tomada del Libro del Apocalipsis (dado por Jesús al Apóstol Juan en el exilio en Patmos), tenía como objetivo consolar y reforzar la fe de los cristianos perseguidos de todos los tiempos. La selección de hoy nos asegura la presencia del Señor misericordioso en nuestras vidas y nos anima a todos a combatir el miedo con fe y la inquietud por el futuro con confianza y esperanza. El Evangelio de hoy recuerda la institución de Jesús del Sacramento de la Reconciliación, un Sacramento de la Divina Misericordia. El Señor resucitado dio a sus apóstoles y a sus sucesores el poder de perdonar los pecados con las palabras: "A quienes perdonéis los pecados, les serán perdonados, ya quienes se los retuviereis, les serán retenidos" (Jn 20, 19-23). Presentando la famosa profesión de fe de Tomás que dudaba, "Señor mío y Dios mío", el Evangelio ilustra cómo Jesús mostró su misericordia al apóstol que dudaba y enfatiza la importancia de la fe.

Mensajes de vida: 1) Necesitamos aceptar la invitación de Dios para celebrar y practicar la misericordia en nuestra vida cristiana: una forma en que la Iglesia celebra la misericordia de Dios durante todo el año es a través del Sacramento de la Reconciliación. Encontrar tiempo para la Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento es otra buena manera de recibir y dar gracias por la Divina Misericordia. Pero es principalmente a través de las obras de misericordia corporales y espirituales que practicamos la misericordia en nuestra vida diaria y nos volvemos elegibles para el juicio misericordioso de Dios.

2) Pidamos a Dios la Fe que culmina en la entrega a Dios y que nos lleva a servir con amor a los que encontramos. La fe viva nos permite ver al Señor resucitado en todos y nos da la voluntad de prestar a cada uno nuestro amoroso servicio. Los Padres de la Iglesia prescriben los siguientes medios tradicionales para crecer en la fe viva y dinámica del Apóstol Santo Tomás: a) Primero, debemos llegar a conocer a Jesús personal e íntimamente por nuestra lectura diaria y meditativa de la Biblia. b) Luego, debemos fortalecer nuestra Fe a través de nuestra oración personal y comunitaria. c) Tercero, debemos compartir la Vida Divina de Jesús frecuentando los Sacramentos de la Reconciliación y recibiendo la Sagrada Eucaristía. Santa Teresa de Calcuta (Madre Teresa) lo presenta así: "Si oramos, creeremos; si creemos, amaremos; si amamos, serviremos. Solo entonces ponemos nuestro amor por Dios en acción".

REFLEXIÓN

¿Cómo es mi vida un anuncio de que Jesús ha resucitado y ha compartido con nosotros el don de la Paz (Shalom)? ¿Necesito constantemente algún tipo de "prueba" del Señor Resucitado o puedo creer sin "ver"? ¿Quién podría beneficiarse de compartir el regalo de la Pascua (Shalom): paz y reconciliación?
