Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 15° (Acts 14:21-27 | Rev 21:1-5a | Jn 13:31-33a,34-35)

Today's readings are about renewal and new things: The New Jerusalem, a new Heaven and a new earth, and a new commandment.

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, describes how the small Christian communities helped the work of renewal in their members by their agápe love, imitating the agápe love of Paul and Barnabas.

The second reading, from the Book of Revelation, explains how God renews His Church, the New Jerusalem, by being present in her members, in their parish communities, and in their liturgical celebrations. "See, I am making all things new."

Today's Gospel passage gives us the secret of Christian renewal as the faithful practice of Jesus' new commandment: "Love one another as I have loved you" (Jn 13:35). Jesus has added a new element to the Old Testament command of love by teaching us that the true test of discipleship is to love other people in the same way that he has loved us, with sacrificial, selfless, self-giving, unconditional, agápe love. Hence, the renewal of Christian life means a radical change of vision and a reordering of our priorities in life. Such a renewal brings us to embrace new attitudes, new values, and new standards of relating to God, to other people and, indeed, to our whole environment.

Life messages: 1) Let us learn to love ourselves so that we may learn to love each other. The old commandment (Lv 19:1-2, 9-18) says: "Love your neighbor as yourself." We cannot learn to cherish others and care for them if we have never learned to do the same for ourselves. We live in a world that denies our basic human worth. How do we reclaim our basic worth? We can become whole and holy only when we learn to love ourselves properly, acknowledging the fact that we are children of God and that the Triune God resides in our souls, making our bodies the "temple of the Holy Spirit."

2) Let us love others in our daily lives: We are asked to love as Jesus loved, in the ordinary course of our lives. We love others by responding to their everyday needs with love and compassion. We love others by comforting and protecting those who have experienced loss. We love others by serving others in every possible way, no matter how small, seeing the face of Jesus in them. We love others by forgiving rather than condemning, by challenging rather than condoning. Finally, we love others by sacrificially sharing our time, talents, and blessings with them.

3) Let us demonstrate our love for others in our gatherings and parish assemblies: When we are assembled as a religious or social community, we have an opportunity to demonstrate our love for one another. People must see Christians as people who interact with a love and concern for one another that reveals their strong love and appreciation for each other. They should see in us a quickness to appreciate and readiness to forgive, even as Christ has forgiven us.

REFLEXION

What can I do to bring the newness of GOD's love into a particular situation? Is there a situation today (this week) that can be renewing by my acting in a more loving way? Who needs to experience a sense of renewal that I can help bring about by my loving him/her/them?

PARISH PATRON CELEBRATION THE HOLY SPIRIT

MAY, MONTH OF THE VIRGIN MARY

A marriage is a domestic church. The rosary helps us build it. A marriage is a model of the Holy Family. The rosary helps us own it. A marriage is a model of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. The rosary helps us embrace it. THE ROSARY IS INTEGRAL TO THE SANCTITY AND GROWTH OF CATHOLIC MARRIAGE. Blessed Mother, please help married couples to be more and more committed to you and to your Holy Catholic Church. Please help them to grow in faith and to pass that faith onto their children. May it permeate every aspect of their life so there is no question Who they put first in their lives so their children see this and learn from it. Thank you for their Faith, may them never take it for granted.

Let us pray the Holy Rosary with her throughout the month of May at 7PM in the Church Garden.

The New Commandment

In the Old Testament, before Jesus came, there were many commandments. They told the people how they should live and what they should and shouldn't do. Jesus obeyed the commandments, but He gave His followers a new one, something different than any of the others:

LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

The love that Jesus was talking about is called charity. It means doing what is best for a person. Here are some ways to love others:

Always think kindly of people. Even when you know something bad about someone, try to think nice thoughts about them.

Always speak kindly about people. Saying bad things about others can hurt them.

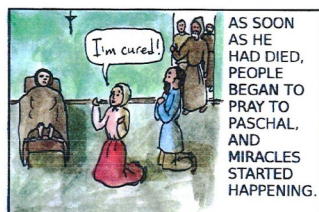

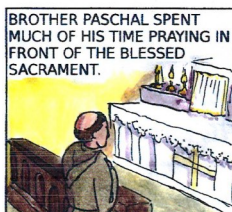

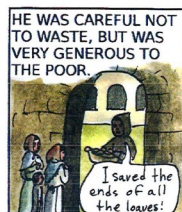

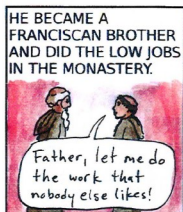

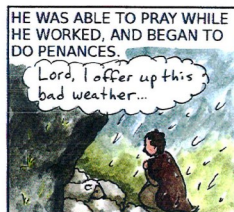

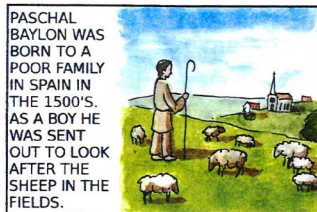

Always act kindly toward others. Treat everyone in the way that you would want to be treated. Show that you are a follower of Jesus by how you love others!

Then I, JOHN, saw a new HEAVEN and a new EARTH. The former heaven and the former earth HAD passed away, and the sea was no MORE. I also saw the holy city, a new JERUSALEM, coming DOWN out of heaven from God, PREPARED as a BRIDE ADORNED for her HUSBAND. I heard a LOUD VOICE from the throne SAYING "BEHOLD, God's DWELLING is with the HUMAN RACE. He will dwell with THEM and they will be his PEOPLE and GOD HIMSELF will ALWAYS be with them as THEIR God. He will WIPE EVERY TEAR from their EYES, and there SHALL be no more DEATH or MOURNING, WAILING or pain, for the old ORDER has passed away."

The One who sat on the THRONE said, "Behold, I MAKE all things new."

DISCIPLE

Acts 14:21-27 | Rev 21:1-5a | Jn 13:31-33a,34-35

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'm an expressive one when it comes to sharing my opinions: I absolutely LOVE these new shoes! I LOVE, LOVE, LOVE this lemon meringue pie! All good. My friends and family are mildly pleased that I am content with my wardrobe and my diet. But in today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the great commandment, combining the two commandments – to love God and to love neighbor – into one: "Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." But what does it really mean to love? Saint Paul says it is to be patient, kind, and to rejoice with the truth; it is not being jealous, pompous, rude, or quick-tempered. (1 Cor 13: 4-6) Saint Thomas Aquinas says that "to love is to will the good of another." The love we show is the very essence of what it means to be Christian. "This (italics added) is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In today's reading from Acts, Paul, and Barnabas return from their travels to various Christian communities. They have shared the Good News, making disciples in each place and building up the Church. Yet when they return, they do not gloat or boast of their accomplishments. Rather, they "reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles." Sometimes in our strivings – to be better friends or parents, better Christians, better at sharing our faith – we can become discouraged when we fall short. Paul, arguably the best evangelist ever, reminds us that God works through us, not the other way around. We are to persevere, placing our trust in God. Through him we are able to love as he does, and help others come to know that same love.

ACTIONS

Spring is upon us! Plant something and watch it grow. Just as the sun and water nurture a garden, God nurtures and helps us grow through the Holy Spirit and the people around us. How can we in turn share that love with others?

CRECE COMO DISCÍPULO | ORAR, ESTUDIAR, ENVOLVERSE, SERVIR

Soy muy expresiva cuando se trata de compartir mis opiniones: ¡ME ENCANTAN estos zapatos nuevos! ¡AMO, AMO, AMO este pastel de merengue de limón! Todo bien. Mis amigos y mi familia están levemente complacidos de que esté contenta con mi guardarropa y mi dieta. Pero en el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos da el gran mandamiento, combinando los dos mandamientos, amar a Dios y amar al prójimo, en uno solo: “Amaos los unos a los otros. Como yo os he amado, así también vosotros debéis amaros los unos a los otros”. Pero, ¿qué significa realmente amar? San Pablo dice que es ser paciente, bondadoso y alegrarse de la verdad; no es ser celoso, pomposo, grosero o irascible. (1 Cor 13, 4-6) Santo Tomás de Aquino dice que “amar es querer el bien de otro”. El amor que mostramos es la esencia misma de lo que significa ser cristiano. “En esto (cursivas añadidas) conocerán todos que sois mis discípulos, si tenéis amor los unos por los otros”.

ANDA EVANGELIZA

ORANDO, INVITANDO, TESTIFICANDO, ACOMPAÑANDO

En la lectura de hoy de Hechos, Pablo y Bernabé regresan de sus viajes a varias comunidades cristianas. Han compartido la Buena Nueva, haciendo discípulos en cada lugar y edificando la Iglesia. Sin embargo, cuando regresan, no se regodean ni se jactan de sus logros. Más bien, “informaron lo que Dios había hecho con ellos y cómo había abierto la puerta de la fe a los gentiles”. A veces, en nuestros esfuerzos por ser mejores amigos o padres, mejores cristianos, mejores compartiendo nuestra fe, podemos desanimarnos cuando nos quedamos cortos. Pablo, posiblemente el mejor evangelista de la historia, nos recuerda que Dios obra a través de nosotros, no al revés. Debemos perseverar, poniendo nuestra confianza en Dios. A través de él podemos amar como él lo hace y ayudar a otros a conocer ese mismo amor.

ACCIÓN ¡La primavera está sobre nosotros! Planta algo y míralo crecer. Así como el sol y el agua nutren un jardín, Dios nos nutre y nos ayuda a crecer a través del Espíritu Santo y las personas que nos rodean. ¿Cómo podemos, a su vez, compartir ese amor con los demás?

Amar

Quinto Domingo de Pascua

15° de Abril (He 14:21-27 | Apoc 21:1-5a | Jn 13:31-33a,34-35)

Las lecturas de hoy son sobre la renovación y las cosas nuevas: la nueva Jerusalén, un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva, y un mandamiento nuevo.

La primera lectura, tomada de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, describe cómo las pequeñas comunidades cristianas ayudaban a la obra de renovación de sus miembros con su amor ágape, imitando el amor ágape de Pablo y Bernabé.

La segunda lectura, del Libro del Apocalipsis, explica cómo Dios renueva Su Iglesia, la Nueva Jerusalén, al estar presente en sus miembros, en sus comunidades parroquiales y en sus celebraciones litúrgicas. "Mira, yo hago nuevas todas las cosas".

El pasaje evangélico de hoy nos da el secreto de la renovación cristiana como práctica fiel del mandamiento nuevo de Jesús: "Amaos unos a otros como yo os he amado" (Jn 13,35). Jesús ha agregado un nuevo elemento al mandamiento del amor del Antiguo Testamento al enseñarnos que la verdadera prueba del discipulado es amar a otras personas de la misma manera que él nos ha amado, con amor sacrificial, desinteresado, abnegado, incondicional y ágape. Por tanto, la renovación de la vida cristiana significa un cambio radical de visión y un reordenamiento de nuestras prioridades en la vida. Tal renovación nos lleva a adoptar nuevas actitudes, nuevos valores y nuevos estándares de relación con Dios, con otras personas y, de hecho, con todo nuestro entorno.

Mensajes de vida: 1) Aprendamos a amarnos a nosotros mismos para que podamos aprender a amarnos los unos a los otros. El antiguo mandamiento (Lv 19, 1-2, 9-18) dice: "Ama a tu prójimo como a ti mismo". No podemos aprender a apreciar a los demás y cuidarlos si nunca hemos aprendido a hacer lo mismo por nosotros mismos. Vivimos en un mundo que niega nuestro valor humano básico. ¿Cómo recuperamos nuestro valor básico? Podemos llegar a ser completos y santos solo cuando aprendemos a amarnos a nosotros mismos apropiadamente, reconociendo el hecho de que somos hijos de Dios y que el Dios Triuno reside en nuestras almas, haciendo de nuestros cuerpos el "templo del Espíritu Santo".

2) Amemos a los demás en nuestra vida diaria: se nos pide que amemos como Jesús amó, en el curso ordinario de nuestra vida. Amamos a los demás respondiendo a sus necesidades diarias con amor y compasión. Amamos a los demás consolando y protegiendo a aquellos que han experimentado una pérdida. Amamos a los demás sirviéndolos de todas las formas posibles, por pequeñas que sean, viendo el rostro de Jesús en ellos. Amamos a los demás al perdonar en lugar de condenar, al desafiar en lugar de tolerar. Finalmente, amamos a los demás al compartir con sacrificio nuestro tiempo, talentos y bendiciones con ellos.

3) Demostremos nuestro amor por los demás en nuestras reuniones y asambleas parroquiales: cuando estamos reunidos como comunidad religiosa o social, tenemos la oportunidad de demostrar nuestro amor por los demás. La gente debe ver a los cristianos como personas que interactúan con un amor y una preocupación por los demás que revela su fuerte amor y aprecio por los demás. Deben ver en nosotros rapidez para apreciar y disposición para perdonar, así como Cristo nos perdonó.

REFLEXIÓN

*¿Qué puedo hacer para traer la novedad del amor de DIOS a una situación particular?
¿Hay alguna situación hoy (esta semana) que pueda ser renovada por mi actuación de una manera más amorosa? ¿Quién necesita experimentar una sensación de renovación que yo pueda ayudar a lograr al amarlo/la/los?*
